"The Easter Story"

"The story of Easter is the story of God's wonderful window of divine surprise."

— Carl Knudsen

Mystery novels are a popular genre of fiction in which a detective, either an amateur or a professional, solves a crime or a series of crimes. Suspense is the driving force as the plot unfolds with a surprise ending. One might pick up a mystery novel and struggle to put it down, reading page by page at the edge of your seat. Mystery novels and their element of suspense engage readers to read a story from cover to cover, to become involved with the unfolding plot from beginning to end.

Two thousand years ago a mystery began to unfold as a Galilean itinerant preacher rode into the capital city of Jerusalem. During the next few days the plot builds, culminating seven days later with the surprise ending.

A study by Nicholas Christenfeld and Jonathan Leavitt of the University of California San Diego's psychology department studied subjects reading short stories and found that those who read the ending first actually had more fun.

Perhaps you're one of those people who like to read the end of the book first?

The psychologists suggest that the reason spoilers have more fun is because it's easier to read a spoiled story. They surmise that once you know the ending it is easier to process the information and focus on a deeper understanding of the information.

The Galilean story's surprise comes with the empty tomb of Easter. In this story we know the ending, so we can freely focus on the details of the story. The pages of the drama played out over the last week of Jesus' life and are known as holy week; Palm Sunday through Easter. It begins on the back of a colt and ends in a cemetery. Who would have ever guessed the ending?

We invite you to be a spoiler reader. Sure we know the end, so let's try to process the rest of the drama as we walk through Holy Week together.

- April 13 Palm Sunday with services at 9 & 11 a.m.
- April 17 7:30 p.m. Holy Thursday service with Holy Communion
- April 18 7:30 p.m. Good Friday service
- April 20 Easter services at 7:00; 9:00; 11:00 a.m.

Together let's discover the week of drama and help make the final page most meaningful.

Come anytime after 3:30 p.m. to help with set-up, serving, enjoy a meal with new friends or help with the clean up. As always, the more help, the merrier! If you are able to help on Saturday afternoon, please contact Karen Martin by emailing to dansgirl9065@sbglobal.net. Thank you everyone for your continued support of this ministry!

KEEP STUFFING YOUR SOCK TO STOP HUNGER NOW

Approximately 25,000 people die each day from hunger or hunger-related causes. 74% of them are children. We can do something about that. Each year Americans spend about $23.8 billion on candy, $65.9 billion on soft drinks, and $566 billion eating out in restaurants. Why not give up a candy bar, soft drink or meal out and donate the money to Mentor UMC's Stop Hunger Now effort?

Mentor UMC is raising $8000 to host an event on Saturday, May 17 to pack 30,000 highly nutritious dehydrated meals comprised of rice, soy, vegetables, flavoring and 21 essential vitamins and minerals. The meals are easily transported to crisis-burdened areas or supplied to school feeding programs around the world. More than 270 socks have been distributed throughout the congregation to set aside money during Lent.

Please keep stuffing your sock and bring in your donations any time between now and Easter. Collection containers are located in the back of the Sanctuary and in Fellowship Hall on Sunday mornings.

Sign ups to volunteer for the May 17th packing event will begin soon!

THROUGH THE YEARS

The Easter season has many traditions. One of the most varied and universal is the food made for Easter and the Easter season. While we have our Easter food staples in the United States, there are many others around the world. Some of them are:

Tsoureki—a brioche like bread from Greece. It is flavored with the essence of the seeds of wild cherries. Hard boiled eggs are placed on top. The eggs are dyed red to symbolize the blood of Christ.

Columba Di Paqua — a candied peel stuffed cake from Italy. It is often made in the shape of a dove symbolizing peace.

Capirotada—a spiced bread pudding from Mexico. It is made with raisins, cloves, cinnamon sticks, and Cheese. The cloves represent the nails of the Cross. The cinnamon sticks represent the Cross. The bread represents the body of Christ.

Kulich—a cake made in Eastern Orthodox countries like Bulgaria, Georgia, and Russia. It is made in a Tall decanter and covered in white icing with either sprinkles or flowers. The cake is often blessed By the priest after Easter service.

Pacoca De Amendolm—an Easter treat from Brazil. It is made from peanuts, sugar, and cassava flour.

Finally, in a lighter and non-religious note, there is the Easter Bilby in Australia. A Bilby is an indigenous rodent in Australia with long ears. He is used in place of a rabbit since rabbits are notorious pests to crops. The Bilby brings the chocolate eggs. You can also enjoy an Easter Bilby!

Whatever food you may enjoy at this time of year, the important thing to remember is Christ's resurrection and triumph over death. Happy Easter!

CHURCH SURVEY FOLLOW-UP

During the first photography session for the new church pictorial directory you were given the opportunity to complete a survey. Over 200 took the survey and we are very grateful for your responses. The information has been collected, collated, made available to staff, and is being used.

The information has been very useful in planning and organizing. We have been able to better respond to your interests and expectations. In addition, the data have been beneficial in helping identify persons for certain ministries. We also have a better understanding of interest for study groups and outreach opportunities.

The amount of information provided gives us a good base to work from. Not all things can be done immediately, but we will do what we can with you in mind. We will follow-up the best we can as opportunities unfold.

Our family would like to thank the members of this church congregation as you have supported us in the recent death of our dad and husband, Dick Swain.

Your many prayers, cards, visitations to Heartland, and donations to YSP in his name mean so much to our family. Thank you also for sharing in the celebration of his life at his memorial service on February 22nd.

The Swain/Kilpeck Family
