“Inhale and Exhale, the Rhythm of Life”

In the early days of my ministry I obtained a computer. It was a small IBM PC Jr. This was long before internet; the purpose of the computer was solely for typing documents. It was an exciting piece of technology. I had graduated from an IBM Selectric III typewriter with the amazing technology that allowed for the correction of mistakes by a simple strikeover. But this glorified typewriter allowed me to type out the whole document, edit, and even run a spell check; all before printing.

We kept the computer in a spare bedroom. I would do my sermon research in my church office, take extensive notes, and pull everything together in a briefcase and go home and plug in the computer, fire up the disc operating system (DOS), and type my sermon. I could store several sermons on an amazing 5 1/4" floppy disc!

When I was home on the computer, my children knew they were to “leave daddy alone.” One day I was busy at the computer when I heard the door push open, soon standing at my side was our little toddler Mark. He didn’t say anything, for he knew he wasn’t supposed to be in the room. He quietly held up a little stuffed lamb. I took the lamb and made all over it, acting like we were communicating. Mark broke the silence and said something like this, “Daddy, it’s not alive.” I looked at him and said, “How do you know it’s not alive?” In his innocence he declared, “Because it’s not breathing!”

As we approach the last full week of the month, we’ll observe the most significant events in the Lamb of God. We’ll remember his last hours with his disciples on Thursday, we’ll remember how he drew his last breath on Friday, and we’ll celebrate that he is alive on Easter Sunday. Yes, the Lamb of God was not alive, the breathing ceased; but he rose from the dead and he breathed again.

Just as breath is a sign of life in our physical bodies, it is a sign of life and health in our spiritual lives. We need to inhale, and we also need to exhale. If we only inhale we have a buildup of oxygen, and that is not healthy; if we only exhale we have a buildup of carbon dioxide, and that is not healthy. In both cases it is life threatening. Likewise, in our spiritual lives we need a healthy rhythm of breathing — inhaling and exhaling — receiving and giving.

Holy Week gives us a good opportunity to inhale as we take in the life giving message of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. So join us as we take a deep breath:

Thursday, March 24th at 7:30 p.m.

Friday, March 25th at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, March 27th at 7 a.m., 9:00 a.m. & 11:00 a.m.

The rhythm of breathing also means we need to exhale. Here’s an opportunity: On Saturday, May 14th we will step out into our community for “Change the World” day. The Administrative Council has set the goal of 581 persons involved in some sort of outreach that day. You will have all sorts of opportunities to serve, for a short block of time, or for all day. Plan to join us as we change the world through breathing life out into the community. Watch in the coming weeks for details.

THROUGH THE YEARS

The Easter season brings with it many wonderful traditions. We all enjoy the food, the sweets, and, of course, the wonderful church services during the season. One tradition we have comes from Victorian England, it is the association of the lily with Easter. The lily, with its growth, dying back, and growth again the following year symbolizes the Resurrection of our Lord. Other flowers, such as tulips, daffodils, and narcissus also bloom each spring. However, it was thought that the lily, with its large, white bloom marks the Easter season perfectly.

Another English tradition that continues to this day is the giving of Maundy Money (sterling silver coins) by the monarch to local elderly men and women for their service to their community and their church. The ceremony takes place on Maundy Thursday at a cathedral or abbey that changes every year. This practice has continued since the 1200s and King John (of Magna Carta fame). The monarch gives out coins to a man and a woman for each year the monarch has lived. For example, this year Queen Elizabeth II will hand out 90 coins each to a man and woman. The tradition is intended to show the humility of the monarch toward the people, mimicking Jesus Christ's acts of humility. The British monarch used to wash the feet of some of the poor, but that practice ended with James II in the seventeenth century.

While flowers can symbolize and monarchs can commemorate, there is only one example necessary at Easter, the love and sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Easter marks the ultimate victory over death. Whatever you plan for Easter Sunday, always remember the great gift He gave us all, that of eternal life. Happy Easter!

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING . . .

Dear Church Family,

We cannot all be present when disaster strikes. However, on March 6th, we will do our part equipping others to go.

I am excited that our congregation will join thousands of others across the U.S. by participating in a Special Sunday of the United Methodist Church. Together, we will help fund the critical disaster-relief efforts of the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR).

For more than 75 years, UMCOR has provided disaster relief, often long after others have left the scene. UMCOR has aided refugees and confronted the crippling challenges of world hunger and poverty. However, UMCOR simply cannot do it without us.

Unlike other benevolent causes, UMCOR does not receive any funds from the regular United Methodist Church budget. Our generous gifts help cover the agency's administrative costs so UMCOR can continue to guarantee that 100 percent of all other donations go toward specific relief projects. Examples are many — rebuilding after the Haiti earthquake, Typhoon Haiyan in the Philippines, Hurricane Katrina, Superstorm Sandy and many other disasters.

One Great Hour of Sharing allows UMCOR and The United Methodist Church to respond immediately when disaster strikes. Think of UMCOR as our "Go Team" who can be there when help is needed.

Friends, our support is critical. Let's be there for those in need.

Please prayerfully consider how God would have you join us in cheerfully and generously showing God's love around the world ~~with your gifts.~~

— Pastor Kurt

Thank you so much to all who sent cards, visited and brought meals, but most of all your prayers.
