

STEEPLETALK

MAY 2016

After presenting examples of Biblical characters who exemplified faith, the writer to the Hebrews declared, "Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith..." (Hebrews 12:1-2a) These words remind us that who we are today is in part due to those who went before us. It also calls us to look ahead, keeping our eyes on Jesus.

Corrie Ten Boom once wrote, "Memories are the key, not to the past, but to the future." We celebrate and learn from our past, but we are always moving into the future.

Mentor UMC is very fortunate to have an active History Committee. They are actively planning for the congregation's 200th anniversary in 2018. Don Humphrey gives leadership to the committee as the chair. Recently he was recognized as Local Church Historian of the Year for the East Ohio Conference. That's a pretty impressive recognition out of a pool of about 700 congregations.

Here are some of the things that were said about Don in the nomination for this

"He (Don) is always looking for ways to lift up the church's history and keep it in the forefront of the congregation. His understanding of the significance of history extends beyond the local church district, conference, denomination and church history. One of the significant marks of his leadership is a monthly historical article, "Through the Years." Since 2003 he has used this article to share history unique to the congregation and beyond. Often times his article aligns with a season of the year."

"Mr. Humphrey is not one to only celebrate the past. While he serves the church's ministry of memory, he is living in the present. He also understands how we can learn from our past as we move into our future,

THROUGH THE YEARS

March 31, 2016 marked the two hundredth anniversary of the death of Francis Asbury, the first Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States. Rev. Asbury was born in 1745 in the small English town of Sandwell near Birmingham. Asbury had a great appetite for learning and reading and accepted Christ at age 13 through the influence of a traveling Baptist showmaker. There is no record, ironically, of him ever being baptized. Due to a lack of resources, Asbury was unable to go to a university and was apprenticed to a metalworker. While still an apprentice, making buckles and nails, he became a local pastor in the Wesleyan Connection. Asbury would get up at four a.m. each morning to work in the forge and then walk four or five miles to Methodist meetings which kept him out until midnight.

When his six and a half year apprenticeship was over, he became one of 104 itinerant preachers of the Methodist Connection across Great Britain and Ireland. In 1771, Rev. Asbury heard the call from John Wesley to go to America and bring God to the people. He arrived later that year and preached his first sermon in historic St. George's Church in Philadelphia, the first of over 16,500 sermons he gave. When the American Revolution broke out, most Methodist Episcopal preachers returned to England. Rev. Asbury stayed in America and hid out in Delaware as some considered him a Tory sympathizer.

Following the revolution, Asbury returned to his role as a Methodist pastor and embraced the new nation and the need for the church in it. He was elected General Superintendent (or Bishop) of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1784.

Rev. Asbury traveled over 265,000 miles on horseback up and down the eastern seaboard and into wilderness areas spreading the faith and welcoming new members of the church. Indeed, membership under his guidance grew from 1,160 members and 10 preachers in 1773 to 214,235 members and almost 700 preachers in 1816. Rev. Asbury's tireless traveling, (he never married) earned him the title "Prophet of the Long Road." He became the second most recognizable man in the country, with George Washington being number one. His biographer, John Wiggins, called him a true "American Saint."

Francis Asbury died on March 31, 1816 at the age of 70. He is buried in Mount Olivet Cemetery in Baltimore, Maryland. A statue of him stands in Washington, D.C., dedicated by Calvin Coolidge. Many cities, hospitals, and schools bear his name. As Methodists, we owe him an incalculable debt.

Thank you to Pastor Landerholm for alerting me to the anniversary of his death.

INTERIORS COMMITTEE

STAINED GLASS WINDOW RESTORATION PROJECT

The Interiors Committee has taken on the challenge of restoring two stained glass windows from the old sanctuary which stood where our chapel is now. These windows have been in storage and were removed during the recent construction project. They need to be completely disassembled, cleaned and re-leaded. The hope is that one of the windows can be placed in a "light-box" and placed in the gallery between the two doors leading toward the Education Wing. The second window would be added to the middle window of the Chapel. The estimated cost per window is around $5000. The Cost of restoration will come only from special donations. These windows are of historical significance to our church.

To date, we have raised $377.00 towards our goal. If you would like to help support the project, please mark your gift "Stained Glass Window Project" and place it in the offering plate or send to the Church Office.

SPR ANNOUNCEMENT

On Sunday, March 13th, it was announced that effective July 1st Pastor Jon Wilterdink will be taking family leave and Pastor Kathy Dickriede will end her service at Mentor UMC. Both pastors came to their decisions through prayer and discernment.

Pastor Jon shares that with conversation about this with our District Superintendent Rev. Sondra Snode, Pastor Kurt Landerholm, and family he has felt God's peace on the decision. He will continue to live in the Mentor area while Beth remains at Hope Ridge UMC, his path will continue to cross our paths. He will be seeking new employment after July 1st.

Jon shares, "I want to affirm the ministry of this church, its pastors, and the many amazing lay people who make ministry possible. It has been a blessing to serve so many people across the Methodist churches of Lake County. I have had the honor of journeying with you all through difficult transitions as well as building impactful small group and outreach opportunities."

Pastor Kathy shares that she has been on staff at Mentor UMC since August 1, 1998 when she came as a layperson working in youth ministry. The congregation has been hugely supportive in times of transition from lay to ordained deacon and from full time youth pastor to part-time pastor of missions.

She shares, "As someone who lives thirty-two miles from the congregation and community of Mentor, I am ready to live locally and turn the responsibilities over to someone better positioned to be engaged in the strong ministries of the church. As I travel from Summit County through Cuyahoga County into Lake County, I realize that I am not "all in" to the ministries that are growing as a result of faithful servants at Mentor UMC. I have been blessed by my involvement with the UMW, Women's Retreats, District events, youth and now young adults, weddings, leading in worship, and being a part of an amazing staff at Mentor. But the time has come for this change in my life."

Kathy will continue serving the Annual Conference, giving leadership to the 3 C's mission work.

In recognition and appreciation of their service, a reception following both worship hours will be held on June 5th for Pastor Jon and June 19th for Pastor Kathy.
