

STEEPLETALK

APRIL 2017

“Transformation”

Recently I took a few days to do some home improvement work. While working alone, for company I turned on the television and listened to old reruns. It was a nostalgic walk through the 60's, 70's and 80's. However, what was new to me was the barrage of daytime TV ads obviously geared to the retirement crowd audience. The categories could fall under the two headings of medical or insurance.

Everywhere we look people are trying to sell us something. Every website in the world that's "free" seems to have some kind of advertisement on it; banner ads, and even full commercials. Just how many times during a day is someone trying to get us to buy their product. We almost become numb to the barrage of advertisements, don't we? However, the exception might be those ads that give us examples of how their product impacted someone's life...like a pill that makes the aches and pains go away, an insurance policy that gives peace of mind, or a diet plan with a loss of 50 pounds. Those stories get our attention. What it comes down to is testimony of transformation.

That's where we Christians have the corner on the market! We're about transformation. Like Jesus coming back from the dead on Easter! What about the transformation of lives? Whether we use terms like conversion, changed or saved; people who encounter Christ have major course adjustments. The Christian life is a journey, and along that journey we are being saved and being saved some more. 2 Corinthians 5:17 reads, "Therefore if anyone be in Christ, they are a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are becoming new." That's transformation, but it is not meant to be self-serving. The United Methodist vision is to make disciples for the transformation of the world. Transformed people transform society.

During the month of April and into May we're going to witness transformation...

- ◆ The breaking forth of dormant bulbs and seeds as grass turns green, trees bud and flowers bloom.
- ◆ Sunday, April 16th we'll gather to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus. This event transformed death from final to hopeful, and it transformed the course of history.
- ◆ Our "Change the World" emphasis on April 23rd—May 21st when we focus on transformed lives transforming the world. We will look at reversing racism, embracing orphans, empowering the poor, and loving the lonely. It will culminate with a day of changing the world on Saturday, May 20th and testimonies on May 21st.

Transformation is our word. Let's celebrate it and make it happen.

COMMUNITY GARDEN . . .

Spring has sprung! Do you like being outdoors and enjoying the sights, and sounds and fellowship of the the veggies in late summer? Then we have a great opportunity for you! The Church Community Garden Club needs your helping hands! You don't have vide fresh veggies to local soup kitchens.

KAIROS COOKIE RESPONSE . . .

THROUGH THE YEARS

Easter sunrise services have long been a part of the celebration of the Resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Many of the faithful gather at dawn in locations all over the world to celebrate Easter.

The first sunrise service ever recorded took place in 1732 in the village of Herrnhut, Saxony. This small town is located in Germany near the Czech border. Members of the Moravian Church's Single Brethren (unmarried men) gathered on the estate of Count Nicholas von Zinzendorf and proceeded to the town graveyard, known as God's Acre, after an all night vigil. They gathered at the graveyard to celebrate the victory over death by our Lord. The following year the whole congregation joined in the sunrise service. Added to the annual event were brass choirs playing chorales.

The most famous sunrise service in the United States also belongs to the Moravian Church. The location was Salem (now Winston-Salem), North Carolina and the year was 1772. This tradition continues to this day. People gather in front of the Home Moravian Church at 6:00 a.m. The service has grown to over six thousand worshippers. As many as 500 brass musicians play during the procession to the Salem Moravian Graveyard, known as "God's Acre". The brass choirs actually begin playing before the service, going into the city playing chorales. The first piece they play is "Sleepers Wake" by Johann Sebastian Bach.

An even earlier tradition, one that began in 1755, continues to this day in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. A Moravian trombone choir begins playing throughout the city on Easter morn. They assemble at two o'clock in the morning and musically announce the Easter message.

John Wesley was quite fond of the Moravian Church. Indeed, it was the calmness that the Moravians exhibited during a rough sea voyage when he was returning to England that was a key moment in Rev. Wesley's life. In fact, after returning to London, Wesley attended a Moravian Society meeting on Aldersgate Street. After hearing Martin Luther's preface to the Book of Romans at this service, Wesley stated: "I felt my heart strangely warmed, I felt I did trust in Christ alone for salvation."

Whenever or wherever you decide to celebrate Easter, whether it be early or later in the morning, the important thing is to celebrate the victory over death of Jesus Christ. He is Risen! He is risen indeed!

OUR NEW CARING SERVANTS . . .

Sunday, March 12th, we commissioned twenty-five Caring Servants during the 11 a.m. sanctuary service. Caring Servants are lay people who serve as an extension of the pastoral care. They will provide visitation, phone calls and notes to people in the congregation as a means of staying connected to shut-ins, those in care facilities, in rehab or recently home from the hospital; those who have recently celebrated weddings or births and those who are experiencing illness or grief. Caring Servants bring a special ministry of compassion and empathy vital to meeting the on-going needs of congregational care for our members. Caring Servants will make friendly visits to many in our church family as they represent the Body of Christ. Their pictures are up in the hallway by the Sign-Up Center.

Hope in the Shadows recalls Christ's journey to the cross by examining the shadows of betrayal, injustice and agony that marked that journey. It contrasts the selfish exploits of humanity with the divine nature of a loving God.

As we take this sacred journey, may the words of James be a reminder of the hope which is ours:

Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows. (James 7:73)
