Can you even believe it is November?! Well, it most certainly is!

Hopefully, you and your kiddos have gotten back into the swing of life with a schedule and are making it back to Mentor UMC regularly. Sunday morning Kids' Journey Groups are in full swing, but I've noticed that not many kids are attending. I do hope that means they are in worship with you, parents and grandparents. If other things have been keeping you away, don't sweat it. I would love to see your smiley faces as soon as you can make it back!

Have you heard the news about Prayer Buddies?! This is a fantastic way for our church to come together across the generations. I am looking for families to sign up their kids to be the recipient of prayer! There are many adults who are looking forward to begin praying for a child. All adults are screened, go through a background check, and complete a training prior to being paired with a child. Wouldn't it be cool to talk to your child about how God works through prayer while someone is praying for them? You can find more info at mentorumc.org/prayer-buddy.

Advent calendars will be available for $5 once again this November. The proceeds from the sale help to keep the cost of Vacation Bible School to a reasonable amount. The VBS Team appreciates all the support.

Parents, are you looking for ways for your child to become more involved at MUMC? If you answered "yes", I have some ideas for you!!! If you have a 5th or 6th Grader it is not too late for them to join StuCo 56. You can find all the details and how to RSVP for each meeting and service project at mentorumc.org/stuco-56. This is such a great way for your tweenager to get involved! If you have a child under the age of kindergarten and who can walk, you may want to consider Parents' Morning Out on Monday mornings. There are still openings available! More details are found at mentorumc.org/parents-morning-out. One other opportunity is for kids in grades 1-6 to sing in the Children's Choir. We rehearse on Sundays from 10:15-10:45. Also, the younger kids, ages 3 through Kindergarten, rehearse on Sundays from 10:15-10:35.

While I still have your attention, you may want to put a few things on your December calendar now....Saturday, December 1 at 1:00 pm we are going to host an event for ANYONE! It is Christmas Crafternoon: An Ornament ADVENTure. This is FREE, FREE, FREE and for all to join! If you have friends who you think may want to check out our awesome church, this is a great opportunity for you. Oh, and a week later, our Christmas play, "The Other Wise Man", will be performed at 4:00 pm with a potluck meal to follow. This is also a FREE event!

Okay, I think that is all I have for November. ;) Please let me know how I can come alongside you during this awesome time of parenthood! I want to resource you and more importantly cheer you on!

By HIS Grace and through HIS love,

- Tammy Palermo, Director of Children and Family Ministries

From the Pastor

"Christian Hoarding"

One of the best known scriptures in the Bible is John 3:16. We find comfort and hope in the words, "For God so loved the world that he gave His only Son, that whosoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." This verse has been called the gospel in a verse. For all the comfort and hope it offers, it also brings a challenge. The two verbs that describe God are "love" and "gave." God loves, and God's love leads the generosity of offering His only Son. God loved, and He also demonstrated love with generosity.

This leaves us with a challenge of self-examination. How much do we love God? Do we love God enough to sacrifice? What does our love for God cost us? Certainly this can be measured in the stewardship of our time in service. It could be measured in our personal prayer life. There are other measurements, but it can also be measured in what we give from what we have.

"Take your every day, ordinary life – your sleeping, eating, going-to-work, and walking-around life – and place it before God as an offering." (Romans 12:1 The Message) All of our lives can be marked by generosity. Later, in verse 8, Paul writes about the gift of giving, and adds, "if it is contributing to the needs of others, then give generously." The writer of Hebrews says, "do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased." (Hebrews 13:16). Generosity and sacrifice are the standards for giving. God is the example.

Recently someone passed on to me an article by Eric Metaxas who presents the idea that Christian hoarding is a present danger for Christ's Church. He cautioned that in today's prosperity, hoarding could be that subtle enemy that snatches away our souls.

He cites an article in "The Atlantic" by Alana Semeuls that reveals that in 2017, Americans spent $240 billion on jewelry, watches, books, luggage, telephones, and related communication equipment—twice as much in inflation-adjusted dollars as in 2002. To hold all this stuff, over the last 20 years new houses are 23% larger and storage facilities have doubled.

It seems we have bought into the idea that the pursuit of happiness includes having more stuff, leading to the suggestion by one expert that Americans have become a society of hoarders.

The concern, again, is the harm to our souls. In the parable of the rich fool in Luke 12, the man received an abundant harvest, so he built bigger barns to keep it, saying, "You have plenty of good things laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry." (Luke 12:19) To that action and attitude, God calls him a fool.

On Sunday, November 18 we have the opportunity to offer our commitments toward the 2019 church budget and a three-year debt retirement campaign. Consider these questions as you commit:

- How much do you love God?
- How much sacrifice are you making with your commitment?
- Are you building bigger barns?

May you experience the blessing of giving generously to God's work.

- Pastor Kurt

November Prayer Focus - Nancy Landerholm

"As we also have forgiven our debtors." We receive the forgiveness Jesus has won for us. Now Jesus asks us to pray for that same forgiveness for those who have hurt or wronged us. Jesus is not saying that what they did was ok, that it doesn't matter, just get over it. He wants us to bring the hurts to him so Jesus can heal our wounds and we can forgive. We can be set free from bitterness and show mercy for those who wrong us, just as we have been shown mercy. Sometimes we will be hurt again, but Jesus wants us to keep bringing the hurts to him so he can give us his strength, healing, and grace to rely on him to keep us from bitterness.

Forgiveness is setting the prisoner free, only to realize that you were the prisoner.

Through The Years

While much of Methodist Church history has centered on the clergy, from John Wesley through Francis Asbury and others, it must be noted that many lay members of the church have made enormous contributions to the cause of spreading the Gospel around the world. One such person is John Raleigh Mott. Mott was born in 1865 in Livingston Manor, New York in the Catskill region of that state. He was the third of four children and the only son of John and Elmira Mott. John was raised with a strong Methodist upbringing. The Motts moved to Iowa where Mr. Mott became a lumber merchant. John attended Upper Iowa University, which then had a Methodist affiliation. He later transferred to Cornell University in Ithaca, New York. He received a Bachelor's degree in Philosophy and History in 1888 and was Phi Beta Kappa. He was active in the YMCA at college. He had originally thought he would follow in his father's business or study law until, while at Cornell, he heard J. E. Kinston Studd challenge him to make a "life-investment decision" regarding his life. Mott decided on a life of evangelization.

Mott founded the Student Volunteer Movement in 1888 to promote evangelization around the world. He traveled extensively with his wife, Leila (a native of Wooster, Ohio) and developed a strong rapport with students, church leaders and heads of state. The Motts had four children, two boys and two girls. Mott founded the World Student Christian Federation in 1895. He traveled to five continents to promote the Christian faith, ecumenism and understanding among peoples. He and a colleague were in England in 1912 when an official with the White Star Line, interested in their work, offered them free passage on the new liner Titanic. They declined and took passage on the more humble liner S S Lapland. When Mott heard about the Titanic's tragedy, he remarked "The Good Lord must have more work for us to do."

In 1916, President Woodrow Wilson appointed Mott as an ambassador to a peace conference in Mexico. He also served in the same capacity in 1917 at a peace conference in Russia. He maintained communication with the Russian Orthodox Church even after the revolution. Mott was also instrumental in the establishment of the World Council of Churches and was named its Honorary President in 1948.

Mott did not consider himself a theologian but was consulted by many in that field. One of his more famous statements was "God desires that we rise above ourselves and our petty ecclesiastical concerns until we are united even as Christ prayed. This unity must not be affirmed only at the end of the world but immediately so that all will recognize the power of the Gospel."

John Mott was awarded a Nobel Peace Prize for his work to promote peace and understanding in 1946. While we may not all win a Nobel Prize, Mott's work can inspire all of us to do what we can to share the Gospel of the love of Jesus Christ.

Great News from Missions Commission regarding the Annual Thanksgiving Dinner.

Missions Commission is delighted to let you know that Katelynn Gurbach has volunteered to be the point person for this year's annual Thanksgiving Dinner. Please help Katelynn make this year's dinner successful as we move forward without Jim and Lori Post being present this holiday.

Now, all of you who spoke to us about wanting to help, have the opportunity to sign up to donate items and your time. This year we are utilizing Sign-Up Genius for this purpose. Please go to the MUMC website homepage, scroll down to the bottom, and click on "2018 Thanksgiving Dinner" under "Around Our Church". You can choose the link to sign up for working at the dinner and/or bringing food items.

Using this online system will be the preferred way to sign-up. It will make it easy for Katelynn to keep up with what is still needed. One of the additional benefits is that you will not have to crowd the Information Hub to get signed-up for your favorite activities and donations. You can sign up from the convenience of your home and will receive an electronic reminder of what you volunteered to do. Sign-up is on a "first-come, first served" basis, so if you have a certain job that you like to do each year, don't delay. Sign up today as soon as you get home from church.

If you have questions or do not have internet capabilities, Jim, Lori and Katelynn will be at the Information Hub following today's church service. Additionally, you can call the church office during the week and ask for Carolyn if you need assistance signing up for service and donations.

Thanksgiving Dinner Food Donation Guidelines

This year, we are encouraging those folks who sign up to donate turkeys, to roast them at home according to directions which will be online and available at the Information Hub. The Posts have created simple step by step directions for the perfect roasted turkey. We may even be able to loan you a roaster!

There are some people who donate turkeys who are away for the holiday and cannot roast them for Thanksgiving, so if you do not want to purchase a turkey, but are willing to roast one, please let us know that as well. If you are donating a turkey unroasted, it needs to be at the church on Sunday, Nov. 18.

If you are roasting a turkey, it needs to be delivered to the church on Wednesday morning, Nov. 21, freshly cooked and warm so that our volunteers can separate the meat from the bones; it is very difficult to de-bone a cold bird!

Finally, if you are delivering a roasted turkey to the church in a roaster, please bring only the parts of the roaster that you absolutely need to bring and make sure that each part is labeled with your name so that it can be returned to you.

Some additional things for you to know: If you are donating a pie, it must be baked prior to being dropped off at the church. Due to limited storage space, the best time to drop off pie donations is Wed, Nov. 21 between 6:30 and 7:30 PM.

Also, if donating rolls, they too need to be baked before being delivered to the church; please NO brown and serve rolls. We just do not have the oven space to do this.

Thank you very much for helping, especially this year!

Coat Ministry

Your help is needed! As the seasons change, so comes the need to help those who struggle to prepare for Old Man Winter. In the past, hundreds of people have been recipients of donations made to the MUMC Coat Ministry. We begin this year with a zero inventory, as anything that was not taken last year was donated to other Lake County organizations whose purpose, like ours, is to help those in need.

We are in need of new or gently worn warm winter coats...Men, Women, Juniors, Children and Babies. In the past we have found that one of the most needed/hard to find coats are sizes XL, 2XL and 3XL (both men and women). We are also in need of mittens/gloves, hats and scarves.

Donations can be brought to church and placed in the bin at the Community Center marked for Coat Ministry. Monetary donations can also be made to the church, specifically designating funds are for this ministry. Coats will be distributed at our annual Thanksgiving dinner, as well as the holiday food distribution.

We pray God continues to use your generosity to meet the needs of so many in our area who depend on and appreciate it. Wishing you all a season of warmth! Should you have any questions, please contact Maggie Goats 440-742-2459.

Newsletter - Alternate Address for Winter

Please let the office know if you will be at a different address during the winter. The newsletter mailing is returned and the church pays a fee. As bulk mail, it is not collected with your regular mail.

We can take you off the list for the dates you are gone, or we can send it to your alternate address. Please stop in Monday through Friday from 8 AM to 4 PM or send information to Carolyn in the office at cnagy@mentorumc.org. Thank you!

Ruth Naomi Circle

November 8, 9:30 AM, Adams Parlor

Rev. Bev Wrobel will speak about her trip to Israel. All women are welcome to join us!

Food Distribution

Please mark your calendars to help with The 2018/2019 Food Distribution to Mentor and MUMC families in need. Food Bags will be given out after church on November 4, 2018 and collected on Sunday, November 11, 2018. If you aren't able to shop, monetary donations are always accepted and welcome! Checks can be made out to MUMC, noted "Food Distribution" and placed in the offering plate or given to the Office.

Volunteers are needed on Monday, November 12, 2018 at 10:00 AM to organize food!

Volunteers are also needed on Monday, November 12, 2018 and Tuesday, November 13, 2018 from 4:00 PM to 7:00 PM to accompany families while they shop and take groceries to their car. If you are interested in helping with this rewarding ministry, please contact Mike Cosmo at 440-488-4566.

Charge Conference

Our annual charge conference will be held at 4:30 PM on Sunday, November 4 at Hope Ridge United Methodist Church. All are welcome to attend.

More Than a Meal

Call or text Jim Post at 440-477-6130 to volunteer or to get more information. Sponsors are needed for 2019 and help is always appreciated at each meal.

Ohio Guidestone

Molly Hodkey, age 22, was at rock bottom. She had fortunately gotten herself out of an abusive relationship, but she still had no support system, believed she had no employable skills, and her self-worth was shot. That's when she turned to Ohio Guidestone in Painesville and met with Veronica Curry. With Veronica's guidance and Ohio Guidestone's program, Molly received skills training in customer service, achieving certification. She received financial literacy training. After earning an internship to develop her skills, Molly was awarded a position with Parks and Recreation, City of Painesville. But maybe most importantly, she started to believe in herself. Molly says "Success for me is being able to look in the mirror and being able to say 'Look what I have done, what I have accomplished. Look what I can do.'" - Ohio Guidestone is affiliated with the United Methodist Church.
