Mentor United Methodist Church

WEEKLY UPDATE

Sunday, September 27, 2020

www.mentorumc.org

This weekend, The East Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church is gathering for Annual Conference. Along with so many things, this event looks different than past years. This event, like so many things, is finding a way to happen ---creatively, courageously, effectively. Mentor UMC is one of nearly 700 United Methodist Churches in east Ohio striving to figure out how to be Christ's Body in 2020.

I began attending Annual Conference in 1988 ... as the wife of an East Ohio pastor. As the years passed, we took along babies – our car loaded down with all the stuff that babies need! As the years passed, I moved into Hoover Auditorium as a pastor myself – kneeling on the stage to be ordained; standing on the stage years later to deliver the Cabinet address. As the years passed, I served in various places and roles always striving to figure out how to lead the church to be Christ's Body. I still do.

Striving to be Christ's Body in the world is an exciting and challenging adventure. We must be the ones who “renounce the spiritual forces of wickedness, reject the evil powers of this world, and repent of our sin”; the ones who “resist evil, injustice, and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves”; and “confess Jesus Christ as Savior, and put (our) whole trust in his grace....” This is our profession of faith, and our commitment to be Christ in the world. (page 40, UM Hymnal)

As a local church ... a local outpost for Christ ... a part of Christ's Body .... we are striving to help one another profess faith in Christ, and grow in the path of Christ-centered discipleship. Even as we do things differently, as we grow in faith we will grow in influence; as we worship we will be inspired to serve; as we trust Jesus we will be a part of His Kingdom coming to earth.

This week, I found Zoom Bible study engaging and interesting – and although different, certainly a valuable investment of my time and energy; and a fun way to connect with people. This week, I delighted in conversations about feeding people – our More Than a Meal outreach, our family food distribution, our youth preparing food for shut-ins. This week, I spoke with several people about faith development, scheduled time to speak with parents about baptism, and finished reading The Color of Compromise. This week, I bought a new Bible. This week, I continue to be:

a follower of Jesus
part of the Body of Christ grateful for you, and your faithful commitment to Christ.

May your weekly update find you more in love with Jesus, and more committed to being a part of the Body of Christ at work in the world .... at work in Mentor! We do not work together to help an institution survive. We work to proclaim Christ!

Pastor Sondra

The name Jesus in Hebrew is Yeshua which links to the most sacred name of God in the Old Testament. ### Joseph Ministry Opportunity with the Nehemiah Mission of Cleveland

We have an important opportunity as Mentor United Methodist Church and the Joseph Ministry to work with the Nehemiah Mission. An immigrant family has found their home in the Cleveland area, are employed, and actively involved in the Nehemiah Mission Bible Studies, Business Programs and other skills programs at Nehemiah. They have worked very hard to establish themselves over the last three years and have recently purchased a home on the east side.

Nehemiah Project has approached Mentor United Methodist and several other churches to work together to help this family get their new home upgraded so that they can move in. The family would work alongside our teams and also contribute much of the financial requirements themselves though we have offered financial assistance if necessary.

I am asking you if you will join a team of 6-12 of our members and be a part of this Christian Mission. This is an opportunity for us to do mission work in our own back yard. Once we have the team, the team will determine their skill set and availability and offer those to the supervisors at Nehemiah. They will help us coordinate our time with the family.

We anticipate that our team would have some very specific one to two-day tasks, and more if we choose we want to do more. This would not be a long term commitment.

Please pray about being a part of this mission and let me know by next Wednesday, September 30. Once we have our team, I will set up a meeting where we can begin to formulate our skill set and our available time.

Email Safety Reminder

If you receive an email that looks like it is coming from someone at the church asking for money or gift cards, these are not actual church emails. It is someone pretending to be Pastor Sondra or another staff member and sending them to people in an attempt to get them to give money or gift cards, etc.

- If you are unsure, delete it. No one will be upset if you delete an email.
- The pastors and staff will never contact you via phone or email asking for donations.
- Do not share any information in person, over the phone, via email, or text with anyone you did not contact first.
- Your church is here to help you! Call or stop up if you have a question. We are here 8 AM to 4 PM, Monday through Friday. 440-255-3496
