One of Mentor UMC's Core Values is that we are "Relationship-Sensitive - We value relationships and the building of relationships because people matter."

You matter!

Your neighbor matters!

Our community is full of people who matter!

Thank you for your generous support of our Giving Tree Ministry. When we switched to online sign-up, honestly, we didn't know how it would go. Yet you stepped up and found ways to adopt and connect with people who need to know they matter. It is easy to overlook or dismiss the needs of others. It is easy to be focused on our personal situations. Yet a core value of Christian discipleship is seeing others. And, not just seeing them; coming alongside them! Being sensitive to their needs and wants. Thank you for coming alongside 102 families who, this week, received an outpouring of grace.

For Joseph, his relationship with Mary mattered. Even when news broke of her pregnancy he was willing to go against the status quo and "dismiss her quietly." Then God broke in and offered another option, "Take her home." It may be difficult for us to comprehend the profound absurdity this proposal was in the culture. Yet this is God. Always breaking in with newness and possibility.

As we continue our Advent journey, may we continue to believe God always breaks in. God desires relationship! God continues to speak truth into our lives, sometimes challenging and pushing us to see beyond the status quo until all people know they matter.

This week's Gospel lesson is Matthew 1:18 – 25. During worship we will hear it proclaimed by some of our Truth and Light Players. I thank them for their engagement in the story telling.

You matter to me!

Reflections on 2020

On December 27, our final worship of 2020, we will take a look back on 2020. We look forward to moving on to a new year! Yet ... what are the lessons or blessings of 2020 that you don't want to forget? What do you want to remember about 2020? Pastor Sondra is looking for your input. Please send her an email by next Monday (December 21) so she can include your thoughts in the service (ssnode@mentorumc.org).

Letters of Gratitude and Encouragement for Cleveland Clinic

The Cleveland Clinic has a program for writing a note of gratitude or encouragement to a Cleveland Clinic Caregiver or a Patient currently admitted to a Cleveland Clinic hospital. There are very specific instructions and there is a survey link to use for each letter at <https://redcap.ccf.org/redcap/surveys/index.php?s=3X7YKDCHK8>.

Cleveland Clinic Caregivers are so appreciative of your service and your efforts to practice social distancing and keep your hands clean. As you participate in this virtual opportunity, please, practice frequent hand hygiene (alcohol hand rubs & soap/water), cough etiquette (cover coughs and/or use cloth face masks) and please, do not participate if having symptoms of any illness.

Please send one note per stamped envelope, addressed as populated by the bottom of the link based on your choices. Any questions can be directed to: 216.219.9766 or ourvoice@ccf.org.

If you would be willing to capture a photo of yourself writing the letter, addressing, or mailing, they can be emailed to Amy Szabo at szabo3@ccf.org.
