Be ready to speak
up and tell anyone who asks why
you're living the way you are and always with the utmost courtesy.
1 Peter 3:15

When Jesus was here on earth, He told all Christians to tell everyone the good news of His love. That means he wants everyone, including kids, to speak up and let people know that God loved us so much He sent his Son Jesus to die on the cross for our sins so we could be forgiven. That makes everyone of us a missionary. Most of the time when you think of missionaries you think of jungles, deserts, and wild animals. You think of men and women going to other countries and learning to speak new languages. Those missionaries are very important to God's plans. However, you are a missionary that is very important to God also. Your school is a perfect place to be a missionary kid. Your jungle is a gym out on the playground. Think of all the kids you talk to in just one day at school. You can be a Christian example when you're hanging out on the playground, drinking milk in the cafeteria, sweatin' in the gym, or taking a spelling test in the classroom. Live the life Jesus wants you to, and when the opportunity to tell someone about Jesus comes, go for it! Even better, invite a friend to go to church with you so they can learn about Jesus and meet a lot of other amazing Christians. Make this the year you become the greatest PLAYGROUND MISSIONARY ever!

GLOBAL MISSIONS

Listed below are a few countries of the world where missionaries live and work. Whip out your pencil and write the countries on the lines where they fit in the puzzle. Make sure you put them in the right order so that when you're done the outlined area provides the correct answer to the question below.

- Belize
- Chili
- Fiji
- Greece
- Guam
- Guatemala
- Haiti
- Israel
- Laos
- Norway

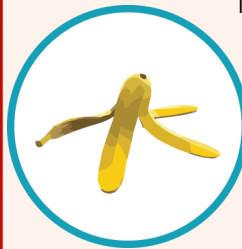

What does everyone in the world need to hear about?

For an extra challenge, grab a friend and see who can locate these countries on a map or globe the fastest.

Being a missionary can be really fun. They get to try new foods, learn new languages, and even make some pretty neat looking crafts. Let yourself experience the cultures of the world and see if the missionary life appeals to you.

Togo Banana Salad

In Togo, West Africa, banana salad is a favorite among the children. For a taste of Togo, whip up this fruity treat. You'll need: 2 bananas (1/2 banana, cut lengthwise for each person), lettuce, mayonnaise, peanuts. Select a nice leaf of lettuce and place it on a salad plate. Lay half the banana on the leaf of lettuce. Spread 1 teaspoon mayonnaise on top of banana. Add 1 teaspoon ground or chopped peanuts across top of mayonnaise. Enjoy!

"Good morning!"

In Russian it's Dobryay utra (doh-bray u-trah). In French it's Bonjour (bo(n)-'zhooR).

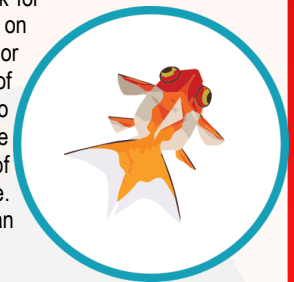

In German it's Guten Morgen (goo-ten more-gin). In Romanian it's Buna dimineata (BOO-nuh dee-mee-NYAH-tzuh).

Japanese Koi

In Japan kids love to make koi. Koi is a kite that looks like a fish. You can make one using colored tissue paper, crayons, string, and a paper sack.

Cut a large circle in the bottom of the sack for the fish's mouth. Draw large black circles on the sides of the sack for eyes. Use crayons or markers to decorate your fish. Glue strips of colored paper on the fish's tail. Punch two holes in the bottom of each sack (in the corners above the mouth) and tie a piece of string through the holes to make a handle. When you're finished flying your Koi, you can hang it in your room.
