THE GREAT PRAISESCAPE

People who praised God at all times!

Praising God is one way to rock the world around you. It's the best way to let God know you're thinking about Him. You can praise God at church or anywhere else your feet take you during the day. Paul and Silas are great examples of people who praised God at all times!

Paul and Silas were passing through Philippi when they were beaten and tossed in jail for casting an evil spirit out of a slave girl. The town leaders told the jailor to guard Paul and Silas closely. So, he put them in a cell far away from the front door, and placed their feet in chains. When night came the prison got very dark. Paul and Silas could have started complaining about the terrible way they had been treated. Instead, they knew God wanted His children to rejoice in Him at all times. In the middle of the night Paul and Silas prayed and sang praises to God. All of a sudden an earthquake rocked the whole jail, and everyone's chains fell off. The jailor started shaking with fear because he thought Paul and Silas had escaped. When the jailor found out no one darted out the door during the earthquake, he asked Paul what he must do to know the same God that set him and Silas free. That night the jailor and his family invited Jesus in their hearts. Paul and Silas were released the next morning. Paul and Silas took advantage of an opportunity to praise the Lord and good things happened. You could even say it rocked their world! When you praise the Lord at all times good things will happen in your life too. So raise your voice, and praise the LORD!

PRAISE WALK

Have you ever heard of a "power walk?" It's not a stroll on an electrical wire. Power walking is something you do when you want to be physically fit. A "praise walk" is something you do to keep yourself spiritually fit. Grab your shoes and head outside for an adventure with nature while praising the Lord. God created everything around you and when you let Him know how much you appreciate His creation, you're praising Him. Use the list below to help you make the most of your "praise walk!"

- Take a walk through nature and look for all the weird and beautiful bugs God has made. Give Him praise for being so creative!
- Take your pets for a walk and thank God for giving them to you.
- Go for a walk at night (with your parents) and check out all the stars. Thank God for making heaven where you will live someday.
- The next time you are walking to or around school, thank God for your teachers and friends.
