* Call to Worship

Leader: God delivers those who are needy, those who are poor, and those who cry for help.

People: God saves the lives of those who have no helper.

Leader: In worship, we remember God's deliverance in our times of need.

People: Help us share this deliverance with those who are displaced, those who are outcast, and those who are hurting.

* Prayer (unison)

God of All People, we have little trouble remembering that your grace and protection rest on us and on people like us. We have a harder time remembering your promise of grace and protection to those who are displaced, those who are outcast, and those who are separated from their families.

Even when our love and grace fall short, we are grateful that your faithfulness extends to all people, especially those who are hurting and alone. Even so, we recognize today that we are called to be your Presence to these same individuals. This morning, we reaffirm our commitment to welcoming those who are displaced, including those who are outcast, and partnering with those who have been separated from their loved ones. Grant us your grace, wisdom and strength in Jesus' name. Amen.

PROCLAMATION AND RESPONSE

Litany for Global Migration Sunday:

Leader: Once we were called out of our homelands.

People: We sought shelter and safety in new places.

Leader: We looked for work and to fulfill God's purposes.

People: We built homes, made friends and created families.

Leader: We created new lives.

People: We made a way where there was no way.

Leader: In new lands, we learned new ways to know God.

People: The revelation of Your love brought forth new light.

Leader: The presence of God migrated with us.

People: We were not left alone.

Leader: Even when we were not accepted or were brought against our will,

People: God did not abandon us.

Leader: As Mary, Joseph and Jesus sought asylum in Egypt,

People: May we seek safety in God's love and God's community.

Leader: As we have sought welcome in new places,

People: So may we welcome all God's children.

Morning Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever.
Amen.
